Nixon to Run For Governor

Announced Plans Rule Out

Bid for Presidency in 1964

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Richard M. Nixon staked his political future today on becoming governor of California in 1962 but ruled himself out as a presidential candidate in 1964.

Ending months of suspense, the 48-year-old Republican who narrowly lost his bid for the White House last November, told a news conference Wednesday night that he will run for the state house next year.

As for 1964 and the presidential election, Nixon had this to say: "I shall not seek the presidency in 1964. I shall not be a candidate and I know people will take me at my word. I will not be the candidate or the nominee."

Nixon said he decided to run for governor, probably against incumbent Democrat Edmund G. Brown, because he feels "I am the one who has the best chance and possibly the only chance to win and to do the job that needs to be done in California."

Had told Ike
The former vice president said he felt his announcement would delight both Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York, potential GOP presidential hopefuls in 1964.

"This clears the way for them," he told the televised news conference. Nixon told newsmen he had disclosed his decision only to his family and former President Eisenhower before facing the television cameras to make his announcement.

"He indicated his approval," Nixon said, with a smile.

Goldwater, commenting on the announcement, said he had long contended Nixon would "have to run in California and win if he was to retain a voice in the Republican party."

President Kennedy, the man Nixon lost to in November, had no immediate comment, nor did Rockefeller.

Ahead of Nixon in his bid for the job of running the nation's second most populous state lay these hurdles:

—Democrats outnumber Republicans 3 to 2 in voter registration and are solidly entrenched in the Legislature.

Faces Nomination Opposition
—He faces opposition in winning his own party nomination next June, principally from ex-Gov. Goodwin J. Knight, 64, who insists he is in the race to stay.

—Even if he wins the GOP nomination, Nixon presumably will face Brown in November. Brown ended 16 years of Republican rule in the state house in 1958 when he overhauled William F. Knowland by more than a million votes.

Nixon told his audience that he was sure that his announcement that he would not seek the presidential nomination in 1964 would "disappoint many who have urged me to run."

"But," he said, "I have concluded that as far as my present opportunities are concerned, the most challenging, the most exciting position that I can seek, and in which I would serve, next to being President of the United States, is to be governor of what will be the first state in the nation."

Plan Changed By Lady Luck

Lady Luck and Las Vegas got together to force the Edouard Courmands to change their plans.

The Courmands engaged a French couple while abroad and sent them over from Paris to open their Palm Springs home.

The couple stopped over at Las Vegas and that's as far west as they got. The husband was "hot at the crap tables and won $18,000. That was enough.

They won't be with the Courmands here this year. They have retired to the south of France.

And the Courmands will be here about the middle of October with another couple from France, Mr. and Mrs. Antoine Guillard. Guillard was formerly chef at Les Ambassadeurs, Paris. Mrs. Guillard was a hair dresser at the Lanvin salon there.

Hearts in It, Pat Nixon Says

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — "Our hearts are in politics, and we are glad to be back in the thick of it," said Pat Nixon.

The wife of Richard M. Nixon, bubbling with excitement, spoke after her husband announced Wednesday night he was a candidate for governor of California in 1962.

She echoed the statement of the former vice president that despite the advantages of salary and private life as a Los Angeles lawyer, "I find that my heart is not there—it is in public service."

Mrs. Nixon, blondish and wearing a simple olive dress with diamond brooch, did not attend her husband's news conference.

But at a cocktail party afterward, a few rooms away in the Statler-Hilton Hotel, she described how she and the two Nixon daughters learned about the decision of the defeated GOP presidential candidate.

"A few nights ago, Dick came home very late. We all heard Dick enter, and the girls ran downstairs. Then we discussed the matter, as we always do in one of our family sessions. We put in our two cents worth—and I guess that was pretty close to the first time I knew definitely Dick was back in it."

Trailer Park Lien Filed For $41,000

INDIO — The Hicks and Allred Company, Inc., today filed a complaint in superior court here for foreclosure of a mechanic's lien against Frederick Stearns, Fairway Construction Co., plus Eugene Theriault, guardian for Ruth E. Patencio, and Priscilla Gonzales, guardian of Deborah M. Gonzales.

The complaint asks for $41,000 for concrete work and materials used at the Date Palm Cove Trailer Park on Date Palm Drive, north of Cathedral City.

SYRIAN ARMY UNITS MUTINY AGAINST NASSER'S REGIME

THREE CAR crash on Highway 111 at Gateway Drive resulted at 2:17 p. m. Wednesday, after Paul Lemuel Myers, 27, Yucaipa, reportedly dozed at the wheel, swerved into path of approaching cars driven by Mrs. Helen Thompson, 57, of Long Beach, and Ronald E. Costi, 35, 32-659 Whispering Palms Trail. Mrs. Thornton swerved to left lane to miss Myers, who swerved back into his lane, crashing into Thornton car. Costi drove off road into sand, but his car was struck by Myers' vehicle, Palm Springs police officer Nick Maff reported. Thornton car is in foreground, others are across highway. (Desert Sun Photo by Peyton Canary)

Seen as Move To Break Up Arab Republic

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — Syrian army units rebelled today in a move to break up the United Arab Republic. The mutiny first was reported ended, but a late broadcast by Damascus Radio indicated the revolt against President Gamal Abdel Nasser's regime might be continuing.

Informed sources here said the initial announcement of a settlement may have been made to confuse plotters of a Communist revolt believed seething beneath the surface. The sources said they learned from Damascus that the Communists exploited the situation this morning to tear down U.A.R. flags and pictures of Nasser. They added that Communists also raced through the streets of Damascus shouting slogans against Syrian-U.A.R. unity.

When the revolt started this morning, the government radio identified itself only as Radio Damascus rather than the usual U.A.R. Broadcasting Service.

A settlement of the rebel demands was announced, and the station again became the U.A.R. Broadcasting Service.

Tonight it was again Radio Damascus, and it said that promises made to the rebels by U.A.R. Vice President and Armed Forces Commander Field Marshal Abdel Hakim Amer had been "unfulfilled."

Amer, who was in Damascus on a trouble-shooting mission in the wake of the resignation from the U.A.R. government of Col. Abdel Hamid Serraj, Syrian strongman and one-time chief of intelligence, was reported to have flown back to Cairo.

Tonight's Damascus Radio broadcast said Amer had "unfulfilled an earlier undertaking to implement Syrian forces' demands to end curfew."

The broadcast added that a curfew had been imposed in Damascus from 7 p. m. to 6 a. m.

Earlier, Damascus and Aleppo radio broadcasts had said that Amer had taken control in Damascus and "the situation is going back to normal."

This report followed a Cairo radio broadcast that Nasser had ordered the Syrian 1st Arab Army to move in and crush the revolt.

The radio reports came after U.A.R. President Gamal Abdel Nasser in Cairo ordered the Syrian 1st Army to crush the revolt.

Nasser said the uprising was staged by "small army units" from the Qatana military camp 12 miles from Damascus. He said these groups seized the Damascus radio and besieged the local army headquarters.

Protest Against Treatment
The "Arab revolutionary supreme command" claimed in broadcasts from Damascus that its coup had succeeded across the nation without the loss of "any single casualty." The revolutionary group said it aimed to split Syria from Egypt in protest against the alleged "poor relation" treatment of Syria by the dominant Egyptian part of the country.

Chamber Will Study Current Election Move

Current moves toward electing a five-man council at large instead of the present seven councilmen by district in Palm Springs will be studied thoroughly by the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce. This action followed a short discussion by the chamber board of directors at their meeting this morning.

Chamber President Joel Stone directed a committee to make a report and a factual analysis at the next board meeting, Thursday, Oct. 5, so as to precede possible city council action on the proposition Oct. 9. Chamber board members individually expressed themselves as favorable to the proposition in principle, on the basis of information at hand but took no action committing the chamber at this time.

Also to be studied and reported on for possible chamber action was the reported curtailing of passenger service to Palm Springs by both the Southern Pacific railway and Greyhound bus lines. Chamber Manager Jimmy Cooper told the board that Southern Pacific had closed its downtown office and that Greyhound had eliminated some Palm Springs stops from its schedules.

After reviewing and approving the audit and reconciliation statements submitted by committee chairman William Smith, the board received reports from its advertising committee on city funds distribution and from Cooper on the progress of the current membership campaign.

The chamber will resume its regular twice-monthly meeting schedule in October. The first meeting will be Thursday, Oct. 5, and the second Thursday, Oct. 19.

TO INVITE IKE

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (UPI)—Former Japanese Prime Minister Nobusuke Kishi planned today to invite former President Eisenhower to visit Japan and to apologize for cancelling Eisenhower's scheduled visit last year because of leftist riots.

News In Brief

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI) — The General Assembly Wednesday elected the West African nation of Sierra Leone the United Nations' 100th member, thereby solving the case of the "lonesome flagpole."

Since last October, 100 flagpoles have stood outside U. N. headquarters here, with only 99 flags flying from them.

NEWPORT, R. I. (UPI) — President Kennedy and his staff today displayed an attitude of cool detachment toward the announced political plans of Kennedy's 1960 opponent, former Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

Asked if the President had any reaction whatever to Nixon's announcement that he will seek the Republican gubernatorial nomination in California but forego presidential efforts in 1964, Press Secretary Pierre Salinger replied, "None."

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Kennedy administration wants to limit the role of congressmen in U.S. delegations to the United Nations.

Sources said today the administration had no objections to the legislators serving as observers, but felt that professional diplomats should represent this country on various U.N. committees.

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — A state Senate fact-finding committee opened a two-day hearing today to determine whether further legislation is needed to restrict the use of certain antibiotics.

State Sen. John F. Thompson, R-San Jose, chairman of the Committee on Public Health and Safety, said his committee was given the responsibility to conduct a two-year study of antibiotics, particularly Chloromycetin.

SUN VALLEY, Idaho (UPI) — Republican leaders from 13 western states registered at Sun Valley today for a three-day workshop conference.

Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona was scheduled to deliver the keynote address tonight, and National Chairman William Miller will speak Friday night. Former Vice President Richard M. Nixon will address the 750 delegates Saturday.

EDWARDS AFB (UPI)—Navy Cmdr. Forrest S. Petersen, riding "the hottest manned aircraft in the air," successfully put the rocket ship X15 through its paces today in a blistering high temperature test.

License Deadline In City Saturday

Saturday is the final day for renewal of the Palm Springs business licenses for fiscal 1961-2 without penalty, City Clerk Shirley Henry announced.

For personal applications in the city clerk's office, final renewal hour will be 5 p. m. Friday, because the clerk's office is closed Saturday, Mrs. Henry said.

"Renewal applications mailed with a postmark of Sept. 30 will be accepted for processing without penalty," she said.

Strike Talk Set Today

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Los Angeles County Labor Federation officials were scheduled to meet today with representatives of the Teamsters and Food Employers Council to help settle a contract dispute in the wholesale grocery industry.

Nearly 9,000 Teamsters in 15 locals are working without a contract. Should they strike, about 75 per cent of dry grocery deliveries in Los Angeles and Orange counties would be affected.

Talks between AFL - CIO Meat Packers and 35 independent meat packing companies also continued today. The union's contract expires next Sunday. A walkout by the meat cutters could affect up to 80 per cent of the meat supplies in the area.

EFFORTS TO APPOINT DAG'S TEMPORARY SUCCESSOR FAIL

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI) — Efforts to have the General Assembly appoint a temporary administrator to take over Hammarskjöld's duties until his successor can be elected in accordance with charter procedures, acknowledged that he saw no way out of the dilemma.

A group of powers headed by India pressed for the Security Council to handle the problem. Russia, which insists on three secretaries general, each with veto power, can block any recommendation with its lone council vote.

The charter provides that a secretary general shall be elected by the General Assembly upon the recommendation of the council. Recognizing that a long deadlock could be expected in the council, Thant and an informal committee of a dozen countries had sought to have the assembly appoint an interim administrator without going to the council.

Interim Plan Unworkable
Thant told newsmen an assembly vote for such a plan probably would get about 60 votes at this time. But he saw 13 or 14 countries voting against it and about 20 abstaining. With non-support from roughly a third of the U.N. membership, he said, the interim plan would be unworkable.

No Headway in East-West Talks

By STEWART HENSLEY
NEW YORK (UPI)—The United States and Russia today appeared to be about as far apart as ever on terms for negotiating the East-West dispute over Berlin.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk was reliably reported to have failed during a four-hour conference Wednesday with Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko, to make any appreciable dents in the tough Russian position. It was their second long meeting within a week.

Rusk and Gromyko scheduled another session for Saturday morning and officials said it could be their last for the time being unless there is some "give" in Gromyko's position.

The U.S. secretary was spending the day in Washington "to catch up with paper work." He planned to return to New York Friday morning for a series of talks with various foreign ministers here for the U. N. General Assembly.

While not too optimistic about progress at this time, some officials believed long-range possibilities for getting the Berlin crisis to the conference table on terms acceptable to the West were rather good.

They believed Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev might be able to make concessions more easily after the conclusion of next month's Communist party conference in Moscow. The theory was that the Russian leader, sometimes criticized by other Communists for being too "soft" toward the West, would want to maintain a tough attitude until after the annual Red meeting.

Bodron Rites Start Friday

Rosary will be recited for Mrs. Angela Rose Bodron, 51, in the Wiefels and Son chapel at 8 p.m. Friday, and funeral Mass will be said in St. Theresa's Catholic Church at 10 a.m. Saturday, by the Rev. J. J. Daly, pastor.

Mrs. Bodron, who lived at 233 Camino Alturas, died Tuesday in the Veterans' Hospital, Long Beach, after a long illness.

A native of Waterbury, Conn., Mrs. Bodron had lived in Palm Springs since 1939. A registered nurse, she served as a lieutenant in the U. S. Army Nurse Corps from 1943 to 1945 in World War II, and as a nurse in Desert Hospital, Mrs. Bodron, active in community affairs, was noted as the historian for Earl Coffman American Legion Post 915.

Survivors include her son, Donald, and a brother Rex R. Santoro, both of Palm Springs; a brother Salvatore Santoro, Oakland; and a sister, Mrs. Mary Russo, New York City.

Interment will be Tuesday in the National Cemetery in Ft. Rosecrans, at San Diego, with full military honors.

Holes Shot In Windows

Palm Springs police today are searching for a vandal who may be junior size.

Polly Mitchell, housekeeper for the Manuel Weiss home, 2866 Livmore, reported that an unknown assailant had shot holes in the windows of three rooms in the house. The vandal apparently had entered the grounds of the home, because some of the windows could not be reached from the street, Mitchell reported.

Investigators found two living room windows, and five bedroom windows had been shot. One shot was put in each window struck officers said. The shot did not penetrate the glass but chipped the inside of the window, indicating a low-velocity bullet like a B-B gun, investigation chief Lt. Robert White reported.

Harold C. West and Assistants To Head Bank of America Branch

Bank of America has appointed Harold C. West manager of its soon-to-open Tahquitz - McCallum and Farrell branch in Palm Springs, it was announced today by Jesse W. Tapp, chairman of the board of directors.

Assisting him in the administration of the new branch will be Harold C. Werner, general lending officer, and Kris F. Nelson, operations officer.

West has been second in charge of the Palm Springs branch for the past 18 years, attaining the rank of assistant vice president a year ago. He originally came to the branch in 1943 as a lending officer.

Besides his banking, he is known locally for an impressive civic record. He is past president of the Palm Springs Chamber of Commerce, Lions Club and the Shrine Club. He is currently a committee chairman and director of the chamber, and member of Eastern Star, Masonic Lodge, Indian Wells Country Club and Al Malaikah Temple of the Shrine.

West was born in Texas but grew up in Fullerton where he attended high school and junior college. He went to work for the bank's Fullerton branch as a bookkeeper in 1928 and remained there until 1941. He then was promoted to officer status at the Orange branch.

He prepared for his advancements at the American Institute of Banking from which he received the standard certificate.

Werner comes to Tahquitz-McCallum and Farrell from the officer reserve staff at the bank's Los Angeles headquarters. He previously served the bank in San Bernardino, Los Angeles and Culver City, joining it in 1938.

A native of New York, he began his career in 1925 at a Valley Stream bank and came to California and the B of A 13 years later.

Werner is a past member of the San Bernardino Chamber of Commerce and the American Institute of Banking. He is an Army veteran of World War II.

Nelson is a relative newcomer to banking, having joined Bank of America in Long Beach in 1959. A year later, he was appointed assistant operations officer at the San Bernardino main office.

He is a graduate of the University of Nebraska and a former staff sergeant in the Air Force.

West Boundary Annexation Seen in Indio

INDIO — Annexation of 74 acres on the western boundary of this community is under consideration of the city council and maps have been submitted to the Riverside County Boundary Commission as the first step. The land in question is a quarter mile wide rectangle and would tie the city limits to the Oasis Palms and Bo Del Heights subdivisions.

Thomas Selman, city manager, said he hopes the report of the Boundary Commission will be returned in time for the Oct. 4 meeting of the council. He said that it is reported that citizens of the two subdivisions desire annexation to Indio but have been balked by the quarter mile date growth between them and the present Indio western limits.

He Had Luck; Preacher Found His Lost Wallet

For a man who lost his wallet, Ernest Mason de Ornellas, Riverside, is a lucky man. A minister found it.

The wallet, containing $49 in cash, plus identification cards and credit cards, was left in a service station phone booth at Vista Chino Drive and North Palm Canyon Drive yesterday afternoon.

The Rev. W. R. Wyse, 61-550 Wilson Road, North Palm Springs, brought the found wallet to Palm Springs police at 3:5 p.m. Wednesday. At p.m., de Ornellas called, reporting his loss.

"It was turned in more than two hours ago," officers told him.

All three men are residents of Palm Springs. West and his wife, Hazel, live at 494 Avenida Palmara; Werner and his wife, Naomi, at 3865 Palm Canyon Drive; and bachelor Nelson at 2749 Girasol.

Savings-Loans In Big Rush

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Scores of California savings and loan associations today rushed to give savers everything from brass desk lamps to imported cheese boards in efforts to beat the Friday deadline on giveaway premiums.

Gifts also included trading stamps and free chances on new cars and trips to Hawaii. They're handed out to savers who open or increase an account anywhere from $25 to $500.

For the past 10 years giveaways have been a factor in the phenomenal growth of savings and loan associations in California.

In 1960 there were 244 California savings and loan associations in the federal home loan bank system, with assets of $10.7 billion. This compared with 174 firms with assets of $1.4 billion in 1950.

It also compared with 174 firms with assets of $1.4 billion in 1950 and with a 1960 nationwide total of 4,694 associations with assets totaling $69 billion.

The new regulations were authorized by the recent state legislature and set forth by the state savings and loan commissioner. They still permit associations to give away premiums. But the companies must not impose the condition that savings open or increase accounts. Nor can the premiums be advertised.

An exception is newly established firms which may advertise giveaways in any amount so long as they are not tied to savings accounts and are limited to a 30-day period in the first year of operation.

Minor Injury In 2 Wrecks

One minor injury collision and one non-injury collision were added to the Wednesday crash total in Palm Springs.

Minor injury was sustained at 4:30 p.m. by Rex Lee Smith, Morongo Valley, and John Earl Harrison, Santa Monica, when their cars collided at Farrell Drive and Alejo Road. Both vehicles received major damage, Palm Springs police officer Nick Maff said.

At 8:04 a.m., Audrey Thelma Barrett, 30-889 San Antonio Drive, and Elizabeth Diane Greeley, 67-871 Valle Vista Drive, Cathedral City, escaped injury when they collided at 350 Vella Road.

Goodwin Knight Comes Out Fighting Dick Nixon

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Former Gov. Goodwin J. Knight came out fighting today against Richard M. Nixon.

Close on the heels of the announcement by Nixon that he intends to seek the Republican nomination for governor next year, Knight, 64, went on television here to say that he is in the race to better man for the job than the former vice president.

"Dick Nixon told me on Aug. 7 that he did not want to be governor and that all his experience and training had been on national and international issues," the 64-year-old former governor said.

"The single largest advantage I have over Nixon is that I have devoted my whole career to state government and he hasn't."

Knight challenged Nixon to debate him on what he said were more than 90 issues directly connected with the welfare of California.

"If he doesn't, I will be amazed and astounded," Knight said. "If he can't demonstrate he knows the answers to these problems he shouldn't be the nominee."

Nixon, said the former governor, is the "one man who will unite all the Democrats against him." He added that he didn't think there was the "slightest doubt" that he (Knight) could attract more Democratic votes than Nixon.

Knight frankly appealed to Democratic voters to change their registration before the June 1962 primary so they could vote for him against Nixon.

"If you Democrats don't like Nixon, register just for a day as a Republican and vote for me in the primary," he said.

Man Cited In Accident

INDIO — A Dallas, Tex., man was cited Wednesday for striking the car that was following him, and his wife received minor injuries in the mishap, the California Highway Patrol said today.

Charles Al Calverly, 57, was cited for an illegal turn on Highway 111 at Dune Palm Road, and his wife, Willie Mae, 53, was treated in Casita Hospital for minor injuries after Calverly's car struck one driven by Charles Erwin Patrick, 42, of San Diego.

Sgt. Maj. Richard Patrick, 43, of San Francisco, a passenger in the Patrick car, told CHP officers both cars were westbound on Highway 111, with Calverly in the lead. Calverly swung right off the roadway, and then left in front of the Patrick car, officers reported.

Home Had That Lived-in Look

Mr. and Mrs. David Itkin, 68-387 Valmonte Sur, returned home from their summer vacation Wednesday, and found their home had a lived-in look.

Itkin told Palm Springs police entry had apparently been made through an east bedroom window sometime between mid-June and Wednesday.

The kitchen door and outside porch door were unlocked. The Itkins had not missed any articles from the house at the time of their report, but to Mrs. Itkin there was a sure tell-tale sign.

"I found bobby pins on the floor," she said.

Camera Club Meet Friday

The Palm Springs Camera Club will hold its first meeting of the season at 8 p.m. Friday in the club room of the Security First National Bank, Ramon Road and Indian Avenue.

Members are asked to enter slides by 7:50 p.m., for judging by Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Richard of Pomona. Contest chairman is Mrs. Floyd Bare, and Mrs. Albert Page Jr., will be hospitality chairman.

Four Little Whoopers

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The almost extinct whooping cranes have something new to whoop about—four little whoopers.

The baby birds were spotted Sept. 18 in the Sass River area of the Canadian Northwest Territories, the Interior Department said Wednesday. The whooper flock last year totaled 36.

Negroes Slate Mass Meeting Friday Night

A mass meeting of all Palm Springs Negro residents has been called for Friday night by the Rev. George Scott, local religious leader, who said today that he was going to state names and facts concerning what he termed an attempt by certain local councilmen to get rid of the Negro vote.

Scott said that he had called the meeting to "find ways and means of combating the council in its attempt to get the Negro vote out of Palm Springs," and added that the meeting would be held at 7:30 p.m. at the Baptist Church in Section 14.

"I am charging that certain Palm Springs city councilmen are using certain means to get the Negro vote out of Palm Springs and keep it out," said Scott, "and Friday night I plan to name names and place the facts before the people who are so vitally affected by the subterfuge." Scott said many Negroes believe that "there is a deliberate plan by some councilmen to keep their vote out of Palm Springs." He implied that the whole matter hinged on the annexation of land to the north of Palm Springs where a new minority housing development is being constructed.

Postmaster at 29 Palms in Office Saturday

TWENTYNINE PALMS — Margaret Kennedy will assume her duties as Postmaster of this community, Saturday. She will be sworn into office Friday, at the close of business, when Postal Inspector Keown of San Bernardino administers the oath.

A former civil service employee at the Marine Corps Base, she was in charge of the civilian pay roll section in the comptrollers office.

Miss Kennedy has been a resident of the High Desert, at different times, over the past 25 years. She has been very active in civic affairs during her residence here.

During World War II, she served in the WAC for 22 months as the chief clerk in the Staff Judge Advocate's office, Fort Mead, Md. After WW II, she became executive secretary to Douglas G. Shearer, then head of the sound department of MGM studios, Culver City.

During her residence here in earlier years, she served as the secretary for the chamber of commerce in 1936 and 1937. She served two more years in that capacity after she moved here the second time in 1952 and 1953.

Kenneth B. Judy has been serving as the acting postmaster.

Margaret Kennedy received confirmation of her appointment as Postmaster in a telegram from Senator Thomas Kuchel, dated Aug. 31.

Variance on Araby at Friday Meet

The Palm Springs variance board will continue the public hearing on the application of Albert and Betty Miller for height variances for a proposed new house at 2415 Araby Drive during the adjourned regular meeting at 2 p.m. Friday.

The Millers seek a variance to permit height of 32 feet in the area, zoned for 15 feet heights. Miller told the board last week the plan is designed to screen a water tank placed behind the house, on a higher lot.

New business will be consideration of a request by Mayfair Market, for extension of the time period on its twenty-four hour service sign at 940 S. Palm Canyon Dr.

David Jester Services Held

Funeral services for Verne David Jester Jr., 21, who died in a local hospital Friday, following an automobile accident, were held Monday afternoon from Cathedral City Community Church.

A native and life-long resident of California, Jester had lived in Palm Springs five years. He made his home at 974 La Jolla Road. He was manager of C & H Market. Jester is survived by his widow, Susan Jester of Palm Springs; a son, David M. Jester III; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Jester Sr.; and two sisters, Mrs. Virginia Walker of Idaho and Carol Ann Jester of Palm Springs.

The Rev. James W. Arnold, pastor of Cathedral City Community Church; Dr. James H. Blackstone, pastor of Palm Springs Community Church; and Dr. Charles Brown conducted the services.

Era Ends

SAWYER, Kan. (UPI) — The last totally handset newspaper in Kansas has ended an era. The Sawyer News has bought a line-casting machine (Linotype). In this Kansas Centennial year it closes another chapter in the history of the state.

SHADY CHARACTERS in Twentynine Palms had better be on the lookout because the sheriff's office will be issuing "wants" Saturday, Sept. 30, for some 20 of these "known" characters. Already in the hands of the local deputies, Williams and Gagner are, from the left, Wally Bradfield, Dick Bailey and Harris Moore. These young Twentynine Palms businessmen will post bail by playing Donkey Softball at the "I Am An American Day" celebration at the Recreation Park Saturday afternoon.

High Desert's Shady Characters To Be Rounded Up Saturday

TWENTYNINE PALMS — The San Bernardino County Sheriff's Substation in Twentynine Palms has posted a "Wanted" circular for some 20 "shady" characters in this High Desert community.

According to Lt. Larry Pressnall, who commands the substation, his force will start a door-to-door manhunt Saturday afternoon, and it is expected, the lieutenant said, that all "shady" characters will be rounded up and herded to the temporary court at the Recreation Park by 7:30 p.m.

Because of alleged violation of different community ordinances, the culprits will be escorted by Deputies. The substation chief said, the "shady" characters will be able to post bail by participating in the donkey baseball game that will be the high light of the day's events at the "I Am An American Day" celebration.

According to an advance list furnished the Desert Sun by S.A. Yockey of Twentynine Palms, the following "shady" characters will be apprehended Saturday:

Dick Bailey, Terry Schuyler, Chuck Wood, Dick Reich, Joe Garvin, Oscar Bailey, Dale McClay, Mike Flynn, Harris Moore, Harry Sullivan, Frank Johnston, Chet Ellis, George Horback, Wally Grant, Mel Hodson, Wally Bradfield, Bill Young, Earl Foster and Dude Armstrong.

The semifinalist group is composed of the highest scoring students in each state and in the United States territories. Each semifinalist now moves a step closer to winning a four-year Merit Scholarship to the college of his choice. The semifinalists will take another rigorous examination, the three-hour Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination Board, to be given on Dec. 2.

3 Students Win Acclaim

Three students of Palm Springs High School have been given recognition for their high achievement in the initial stage of the seventh annual National Merit Scholarship competition, Dr. Austin Sellery, principal has announced.

Dr. Sellery said the students were named semifinalists in the 1961-62 Merit program as a result of their outstanding performance on the National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test.

They are Steve Nichols, senior, 17 and son of Mr. and Mrs. Culver Nichols, 1120 Paseo El Mirador; Phil Harnage, senior, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Harnage, B-Bar-H Ranch, Desert Hot Springs; and Jim Laukus, senior, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Laukus, 103 Mabrey Road, Palm Springs.

The three desert area youths are among approximately 10,000 seniors throughout the country who attained semifinalist status through their high scores on the qualifying examination, a test of educational development given last March in more than 15,000 high schools.

The semifinalist group is composed of the highest scoring students in each state and in the United States territories. Each semifinalist now moves a step closer to winning a four-year Merit Scholarship to the college of his choice. The semifinalists will take another rigorous examination, the three-hour Scholastic Aptitude Test of the College Entrance Examination Board, to be given on Dec. 2.

Students whose scores on the second test substantiate their performance on the qualifying test and who are endorsed by their high schools will become finalists in the competition. According to the National Merit Scholarship Corporation, in past years more than 97 per cent of the semifinalists have become finalists. Finalists are eligible for scholarship awards sponsored by some 130 business corporations, foundations, associations, individuals and the non-profit National Merit Scholarship Corporation.

In the final stages of the competition, the high school grades, extracurricular activities, school citizenship and leadership qualities of the students will be evaluated along with their test scores.

Finalists are usually announced in April.

Each Merit Scholarship is a four-year award for undergraduate study, ranging in amount from a maximum of $1,500 annually for a student in financial need to $100 for students already possessing financial resources.

Red Cross Annual Meet Wednesday

The board of directors of the Palm Springs branch, American Red Cross, will hold its annual meeting at 8:30 a.m. next Wednesday in Palm Springs Lanes.

Mrs. Juin Vail, administrative assistant to the Palm Springs branch, announced that regular monthly board meetings will be held the first Wednesday of each month, at a time and place to be set.

From Beaumont, Tex., Riverside County ARC safety services director John Kraft reported the first $400 in Riverside County aid has already arrived to help victims of Hurricane Carla.

"Funds for disaster relief are needed now. All food, shelter, clothing, medical care, replacement of homes and occupational materials are given by Red Cross as a gift," Kraft said. Estimating a need for "millions of dollars" in total aid, Kraft called for $2,000 from the Riverside County chapter.

A New World of Worth from Chevrolet for '62!

'62 Impala Sport Coupe—with a roof line that looks like a convertible's

'62 CHEVROLET Rich new styling with Jet-smooth ride!

Here's everything a car fancier could want. Fresh-minted style that comes to a climax in the sportiest sport coupe you've seen yet. A road-gentling Jet-smooth ride. A new choice of V8 skedaddle. Rich Body by Fisher interiors. Beauty that's specially built to stay beautiful. Here in '62 is more than ever to please you from the make that pleases most people.

It's like owning an expensive car without the expense. Check it over from its clean-thrusting prow to its rakish rear deck. Look inside the deep-well trunk. Then—head for the open highway. That sittin'-on-satin feeling you get is Chevrolet's famous Jet-smooth ride at work—with a pliant Full Coil spring cushioning at each wheel. The standard six and V8 are triggered to do special things on regular gas, and for real hair-trigger reflexes you have a choice of four optional-at-extra-cost V8's with output all the way up to 409 hp. ■ Hard-working helpers (like the new steel front fender underskirts that guard against corrosion) give this '62 its built-for-keeps beauty. Even the heater and defroster come as standard equipment this year. This is the kind of car that will make you feel luxurious all over, and your Chevrolet dealer will be only too happy to show you how easy it is to have one of your own.

Corvair Monza Club Coupe

THE '62 CORVAIR MONZA

Meet the car that puts sport in the driver's seat! Bigger new brakes and Corvair's renowned rear-engine traction offer just about the surest footed going on the road. A new Monza S Wagon makes its debut. And all models sport freshly tailored upholstery inside matched by sassy new styling accents outside.

This jim-dandy's got the stuff that drivers dote on. ■ Backstage you have a standard aluminum air-cooled engine that turns up 80 hp. (or if you like more razzamatazz, one that uncorks 102 hp?). ■ Sure enough, there's independent suspension on all four wheels to keep the ride as amiable as ever. Inside, you'll find a heater and defroster, cigarette lighter, dual sunshades, front-door armrests and automatic choke as standard equipment on most models. ■ There are lots of reasons for liking what's new—and tried and true—in the '62 Corvair. And your dealer's eager to tick 'em off for you.

*Optional at extra cost.

Chevy II 300 2-Door Sedan

HERE'S THE NEW CHEVY II

Here's modern basic transportation in a totally new line of cars with all the solid, time-tested Chevrolet virtues—plus some surprises you've never seen on any car before. A full line of saucy new-size models. Thrifty? Choice of a frugal 4- or spunky 6-cylinder engine (in most models). Roomy? Sedans seat six solid citizens. Price? A real pleasant surprise!

This plucky new Chevy II comes about as close as a car can to perpetual motion. ■ All nine models (station wagons, a hardtop, even a convertible will soon be available in the lineup) are designed to save you money and service. Major front-end sections, including fenders, bolt on for easy replacement in case of damage. The heater and defroster are yours as standard equipment. Tough—but ever-so-gentle—Mono-Plate rear springs eliminate the friction of old-fashioned multi-leaf springs. ■ And, maneuverable and sensibly sized as this Chevy II is, it gives you the kind of room that'll make ma' a "big" car wonder how it's done.

SINGING STAR Kathryn Grayson, star of movies, television, radio, concert stage and night clubs will be in the spotlight, when Chi Chi opens its famed Starlite Room for another winter season next Friday night, Oct. 6. The petite star is presenting a diversified program of selections displaying the rich quality of her glorious voice, that has an amazing range.

Guitarist To Open at President

Jim Holland, rising flamenco guitarist, pianist and singer, will open the season in the President Hotel's completely new Senate Lounge Sunday.

Holland, who began his musical career with an Air Force combo in 1944-8, won the prized "Tops in Blues" Air Force-wide musical talent contest in both 1957 and 1958.

He appeared on the Ed Sullivan show in 1957, with Steve Allen in 1958, and is now finalizing arrangements for a major west coast television appearance.

With the Air Force, Holland toured bases across the country with Andy Devine and Marian Marlowe. As a civilian entertainer, he has played New York, Washington, and other top eastern cities, plus the midwest, and top clubs in Riverside.

The busy young entertainer, noted for his traditional technique with the flamenco guitar, has already pressed two stereo record albums.

"Jim is a major addition to desert area entertainment, and a talent who has already established himself as a top-ranking musician," hotelman Stanley Spiegelman announced.

If bubbles form when you varnish, they can be removed before they dry by brushing them back into the surface with light feathering strokes of a nearly dry brush before the varnish sets.

VILLAGE VARIETY

by Hildy Crawford

When Chi Chi opens its Starlite Room next Friday night, for another gala season it will present a sparkling opening show, headlining the beautiful songstress Kathryn Grayson, who is booked from Oct. 6 through 14.

A childish prank brought the future singing star to the attention of a talent scout, when she was living in St. Louis. She and a little friend climbed over the fence behind the Municipal Opera Amphitheater and walked out on the cavernous stage, where they played "opera star," singing to the rows of empty seats. Away in the back, voice teacher, Frances Marshall, heard the voice of Kathryn Grayson, and impressed by its perfect pitch, range and quality, offered to give her voice lessons.

Within five years, there was an MGM contract that led to stardom in more than 20 pictures, among them "Showboat," "Kiss Me Kate," "Anchors Away" and "So This Is Love," the Grace Moore story. Of course, she went on to an illustrious career on the concert stage, radio, TV, records and in nightclubs.

Back at Chi Chi for his ninth season, will be Bill Alexander and his orchestra, who played a summer engagement at Apple Valley Inn, as they have for several years.

Starlite Room's summer replacement, the Gilded Cage, presided over by Jeanne Keller, will move over into the bar lounge, as an added attraction for the winter months.

The Gilded Cage, which has been a popular spot this summer, has been the scene of many dinner parties. Enjoying the current show the other evening were the Julian Stiffs (even the management enjoys those shows), who had as their guests the Bob Avers and the Corky Lindgrens. Corky, a member of The Lancers, joined in a spirited duet with headliner Mr. Barbary Coast.

In another gay party were Judith and Robert Mitchell and their guests Mrs. Ellen Hawk and her daughter Clarie of San Bernardino who were helping the Mitchells celebrate their 11th wedding anniversary.

An instructor at Riverside Poly High, Mitchell and his wife were holidaying here at the Desert Isle.

Vacationing at the Riviera this week is Tony Owen, producer-director of the Donna Reed Show on television.

Now in rehearsal at Palm Desert is "Grandpa's Folies," a Gay 90-ish revue with olio acts and a zany melodramatic plot.

Directed by Clay Stearns and produced by Palm Desert Players, the show is being sponsored by Palm Desert Optimists Club. Proceeds will go to the Boy Scouts work program.

This will be a fun affair, with the audience seated at tables, and served cold drinks and sandwiches.

Show time is set for Oct. 20-21, with curtain at 8:30, and Stearns is still casting. If you have an entertaining act, sing or dance, and want to appear in the olio, call him at 326-6230.

Recent visitors in the Garden Room at the Biltmore were Mr. and Mrs. Larry Harmon. He's producer and originator of Bozo The Clown cartoon productions, and is at work on a series of Laurel and Hardy cartoons.

Veteran character actor and Villager Jack Lambert (he and his wife Marge live here and are members of the Racquet Club) has been cast as the villain in "The George Raft Story." He will play a vicious hoodlum just out of prison, who tries to kill Raft and forces him to leave New York.

Four New Songs By Rodgers in 'State Fair'

Composer Richard Rodgers, serving also as lyricist for the first time, has turned out four new songs for the re-make of "State Fair," the motion picture he first did years ago with the late Oscar Hammerstein. The songs are "This Isn't Heaven," "It's the Little Things in Texas," "Willing and Eager" and "More Than Just A Friend." Work on the film was begun by 20th Century-Fox in Dallas on Sept. 18.

Rodgers now is busy on the score, both music and lyrics, of "No Strings," Broadway musical due early in 1962.

LUSCIOUS BLONDE Dora Davis who gives with the pop music, headlines Saturday night's show at the Staff NCO Club at the Marine Corps Base at Twentynine Palms. The show, which goes on at 10 p. m., also offers vocalist Randy Brent, dancer Cindy Shea and Sonja Taffy, who is billed as "Sophie Tucker's only rival."

'Threepenny' Continues Record-Holder

NEW YORK (UPI) — "The Threepenny Opera" has passed another milestone in its long career as record-holder for consecutive performances by a musical anywhere.

The Kurt Weill-Bert Brecht show began its seventh year at the Theater de Lys on Sept. 20 with the 2,508th performance.

Broadway Calls

Henry Fonda, who had expected to stay away from Broadway with other assignments for a year or so after closing last spring in "Critic's Choice," has suddenly agreed to come back the latter part of this season as the star of "The Last of the Wine" by Garson Kanin.

Cole Porter Is Recluse

By RICK DU BROW
UPI Hollywood Writer

HOLLYWOOD (UPI)—Cole Porter, his musical pen stilled since the amputation of his right leg three years ago, is determined to write again for the Broadway stage.

That is the information from his agent, Irving Lazar, a constant visitor of the composer, who has been a virtual recluse since the death of his wife in 1954 and the amputation in 1958.

Porter, 68-year-old author of such classic popular songs as "I Love Paris" and "Begin the Beguine," has declined to be interviewed because of his poor health. A close friend explained:

"At this point, he would rather not see people, except for his few closest friends. He is an elegant, sophisticated man with a certain amount of vanity. He has a pride in the way he can look."

"When he doesn't look well, he shuts himself away. He likes to show his best side. It is a mark of grace from a long-gone era."

Wants to Compose
Said Lazar: "Cole says he's going to write again—when he's well. It would be only for Broadway. I talk to him all the time about it. He's being offered things to do all the time."

It's Drama Versus Literature For Novelist

WOMAN'S VIEW
By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI)—Mary Orr, actress, wishes that theater roles were as plentiful as plots for Mary Orr, novelist.

The blonde, blue-eyed beauty is one of those rare career women who has succeeded both on Broadway and in the book stores.

"Well, I'm hardly a trailblazer," she said in an interview. "For instance, there are Ruth Gordon and Noel Coward. Those are just two I think of who act and write too."

"The pleasant thing about doing both," said Miss Orr, "is that if you don't get the part you want in a play you can always stay home and put a book together. As I get older, I get choosier in the theater. I don't want to understudy. I don't need that any more."

Miss Orr last starred on Broadway in "The Desperate Hours." She currently is billed in publishers' lists as author of "A Place To Meet," a novel about illicit love.

Male Monopoly
"The men always seem to be writing this type of novel," she said. "Women writers tend to skip over the subject."

"I just tried to write as a woman would think and act. Few men for instance would know about a simple female worry—how your coiffure comes uncured in the rain."

Mary Orr in private life is married to Reginald Denham, a Broadway director-playwright and her collaborator on a number of plays and television scripts. He directed the Broadway hits, "The Bad Seed," "Dial M for Murder" and "The Two Mrs. Carrs." The couple has just completed adaptation for TV of "Intermezzo," which in the movie version starred Leslie Howard and Ingrid Bergman.

"Every one of our friends who reads my new book wants to know 'Mary, is it autobiographical?'" said Miss Orr. "It isn't, but when I mentioned this to my husband, I said, 'Dear, do you mind?'"

"His answer was, 'Not as long as the book makes money.'"

Won 1950 Prize
Authoress Orr has written a number of short stories and plays and in 1950 won the Screen Writers' Guild award for her original story which became the Academy Award motion picture "All About Eve."

The movie starred Anne Baxter and Bette Davis and also introduced a little known blonde named Marilyn Monroe.

Actress Orr, born in Brooklyn, N.Y., grew up in Canton and Cleveland, Ohio. She was graduated from Ward-Belmont College, Nashville, Tenn., and was in her first year at Syracuse University when she decided to try for a theatrical career.

A RECEPTION honoring newlyweds Mr. and Mrs. Richard Dee Bandlow will be given by the bridegroom's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Dunlevie at their Bermuda Dunes home. Wedding Reception Will Fete Newlywed Bandlows

A wedding reception, honoring newlyweds Richard Dee Bandlow and the former Victoria Lynn Davenport, will be given by the Ernie Dunlevies at their Bermuda Dunes Country Club home on the evening of Oct. 7. The couple, recently wed in Las Vegas, will reside in Brentwood following their honeymoon.

Mrs. Dunlevie is the bridegroom's sister and his parents are the Raymond Bandlows of 667 Indian Trail, Palm Springs.

Young Bandlow has a dual career going for him — real estate sales and acting.

In the latter career his fortunes have taken a brilliant turn. He's landed the top role in Los Angeles' Circle Theatre presentation of "Winter Harvest." He's also scheduled for a co-starring role in a segment of TV's "Death Valley Days." His early theatrical grooming took place in Palm Springs when he was a member of the Ferrall Playhouse company.

A graduate from Gloversville High School, Gloversville, N. Y., he attended Lafayette College in Pennsylvania.

The bride is the daughter of the Raymond Davenports, formerly of Palm Springs and now residents of Whittier. She's a graduate from Palm Springs High School and John Robert Powers modeling school. Early this year she won the title of Miss North Shore Beach in a beauty contest conducted at North Shore Beach Yacht Club on the Salton Sea.

Bermuda Dunes Country Club has played a major role in the couple's romance. They met and had their first dance together at the club's first anniversary party in November, 1960. They plan to attend Bermuda Dunes' second anniversary party Oct. 14 to mark the occasion.

Wives Club Luncheon in Fiesta Theme

Members of the Commissioned Officers' Wives Club of the Twentieth Marine Corps Base, who held a hospitality coffee this morning, honoring newcomers to the Base, are preparing for a luncheon on Oct. 5.

Club members will have the opportunity of hearing Richard Schmidt of San Bernardino speak on the problems of juvenile delinquency. Ladies of Headquarters Force Troops and 7th Engineers, who are sponsoring the luncheon, have decided on a Mexican Fiesta theme and a south-of-the-border menu will be served. A social period will commence at 1 p.m., with luncheon at 1:30.

Reservations are necessary and must be made by noon on Oct. 3, by calling Daily Kohler at 368-2571; Gladys McNew at 367-6544 or Phyllis Snyder at 368-4545.

Daughter Born to LaSalles

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin M. LaSalle of Palo Verde Drive, Sunair, are the parents of a daughter, born Sept. 25 at Loma Linda Hospital. The little girl, who weighed eight pounds one and a half ounces, has been named Tamara Suzanne. The first child of the LaSalles, she is also the first granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin T. LaSalle of Cathedral City. Her maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Comby of San Gabriel. Mrs. LaSalle and the new baby are expected home this weekend.

MR. AND MRS. HENRY KIRSCH, of North Palm Springs, who were married 50 years ago in Missouri, will celebrate their Golden Wedding anniversary Sunday, when they will be honored at a reception at the Alhambra home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Atkinson.

Reception to Celebrate Kirsch Golden Wedding

Married half a century ago in Troy, Missouri, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Kirsch of 65-163 Dillon Road, North Palm Springs, will be honored at a reception celebrating their Golden Wedding anniversary on Sunday. The reception, which will be held in Alhambra at the home of their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Atkinson, will be from 3-5 p.m., with 100 friends and relatives expected to attend.

The Kirschs have lived in California since 1922, residing in Alhambra until they moved to North Palm Springs four years ago, when he retired as an employee of the Huntington Memorial Library in San Marino.

Host Visitors

Honoring the Ollie Daltons and their houseguest Mrs. McKenzie Tansley, interior decorator from Toronto, Canada and Rio de Janeiro, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Wade entertained them in the Biltmore Garden Room.

Legal Secretaries Meet

Due to the courtesy of Sherman Steak House, which opened especially for the occasion, the Desert Legal Secretaries Association had one of their most pleasant dinner meetings to date on Monday evening.

The meeting was presided over by president Lila Hodgen, and the guest speaker was Luke Christian, deputy county clerk, in charge of the County Clerk's Office in Indio. He spoke informally regarding the County Clerk's office in relationship to the duties of a legal secretary, and followed his talk with a question and answer period.

During the business meeting plans were discussed for a fashion show and luncheon. Mrs. Rosella Stoddard, chairman of the ways and means committee, will be in charge of this affair which will be held at Holiday Inn on Nov. 18.

Plans were also discussed regarding Legal Secretaries Day in Court, a nation-wide program resulting from a proclamation issued by the National Legal Secretaries Association, which will enable each member of this national organization to spend one day in a Judicial Court to observe court procedure in detail. Virginia Hooten, chairman of this program, will arrange the schedule for members of the local group to visit the Superior Courts in Indio. This program extends throughout the month of October. Guests other than regular members, at Monday night's meeting included: Helen Hanson, executive secretary, El Mirador Hotel; Vera Biss, San Geronimo Justice Court, Banning; Thelma Good, Coachella Valley Savings & Loan Escrow Dept.; Margaret Garcia, County Clerk's office, Indio; Rosemary Hennes, Honnes Law Office, Palm Springs; Betty Berry, Wm. Burt law office, and Angie Martins, James Hollowell law office.

Cotton corduroys, suedes, poplin and knit interpret the kookie look for dormitory lounging or after-ski wear.

Betty Roberts and Lou Kuehner to Be Married

Betty Mary Roberts and Louis Carl Kuehner, took out a marriage license at Indio this week and will be married Saturday morning in an informal ceremony in the offices of Judge Eugene Therjeau. They will be attended by Jean Housek and Phil Murray and the wedding party will also include her daughter Victoria, and her parents Mrs. and Mrs. Arthur Roberts of Palm Springs.

Following the marriage ceremony, the wedding party will have brunch at the Town & Country restaurant.

The newlyweds will make their home in the Rancho Mirage area.

The Ford in your future will be here tomorrow!

Starting tomorrow at your Ford Dealer's, you will discover a line of Fords so long, so new, so varied that everyone will find his personal Ford—the car that fits his pleasure and needs precisely! ■ For those who want a true luxury car, there are two distinguished new series of Galaxies—both swift as a rumor, silent as a secret. With Thunderbird styling, and quality that sets a new industry standard, the 1962 Galaxies give you every essential feature of far costlier cars. ■ If you are looking for economy without compromise, look to America's favorite compact: this year there are more Falcons than ever to choose from—13 in all. ■ Wagon fanciers will find unprecedented variety—from a new wagon that seats eight to a Falcon Squire Wagon with the rich woodlike finish of the famous Country Squire. ■ Pick the Ford in your future with this confidence: every 1962 Ford is built to a standard of quality so high that it will change all your ideas of how fine, how quiet, how enduring a car can be.

GALAXIE 500 CLUB VICTORIA (foreground)
... GALAXIE TOWN SEDAN (background)
... The Galaxie 500—new in name, new in luxury—is for those who want all of the elegant extras. The 1962 Galaxie makes it easier than ever to move up to fine-car luxury—at the low Ford price. All Galaxies are beautifully built to be more service-free. They go 30,000 miles between major lubrications, 6,000 miles between oil changes and minor lubrications. Brakes adjust themselves automatically.

FALCON SQUIRE WAGON ... Brand new for '62, it's sleek and sophisticated. Inside, it is available with Futura bucket seats and console! Outside, it has elegant woodlike steel side paneling.

FALCON FORDOR SEDAN ... Just one of 13 Falcons for 1962, this 4-door sedan has an improved version of the Falcon Six engine that last spring recorded the best gas mileage for a Six or Eight in the 25-year history of the Mustang Economy Run.

Smoke-Filled Room Scene of TV Show Drama

By VERNON SCOTT
UPI Hollywood Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — The smoke-filled room was tense with anticipation as 10 pairs of eyes followed every move of the man behind the desk.
Two of the group wore neckties. The rest were dressed for the race track. One tough-looking customer sported a goatee.
These hard-boiled men were nervous. A wrong look from the big boss would be disastrous. He flipped deliberately through the manuscript a page at a time, glancing occasionally at one of his gang.
Finally, he banged the desk with his fist and broke out in spasms of laughter. He howled. He guffawed. He wiped his eyes in merriment. The chief was breaking up.
He Likes It!
With a sigh of relief his henchmen settled back in their chairs. "It's great. Very funny," said bossman Steve Allen to his crew of writers and production assistants.
Then he began reading aloud, making slight changes here and there, advising a secretary where music should be inserted in the script.
When the boys filed out Allen turned in his chair and sighed. "It's good to be back with a weekly television show. I missed all the activity. We're taping ahead of schedule so I'm really keeping busy. Our first show hits the air Wednesday night."
After more than a year away from TV screens Allen and his zany friends will be back on a new network (ABC) on Wednesday.
"The show will be altogether different from the old variety format I used to have," he said. "There won't be any big-name guest stars and only enough music to change the pace."
"Television doesn't need more variety programs. But there is a need for good comedy and we hope to supply it."
Among the unusual names of towns to be found in New Mexico are Loco Hills, Pep, Lingo Pie Town, Rosbud and High Lonesome.

CUTTING OUT Wednesday, Oct. 4, for the first big desert area Democratic conclave, to be held in the Palm Springs Elks Lodge, are Mrs. Natalie Myers, reservations chairman, and Stanley Spiegelman, Palm Springs Area Democratic Club president. Delegations from all desert area Democratic clubs will meet for policy planning session. Mrs. Myers is receiving reservations at 324-4413. (Desert Sun Photo)

LAWGIVERS HAD TROUBLES IN STOPPING THE BABBLING

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Some of our poetic-minded congressmen are fond of saying that something or other reminds them of "Tennyson's brook" — meaning, I suppose, that it babbles on and on. In that context, the 1961 session of Congress was itself a bit like Tennyson's eternal stream. Frankly, however, it reminded me more of Bull Run.
For one reason or another, our lawmakers this year had more trouble than usual reaching the point where all 500-odd would stop talking simultaneously.
Get the House silenced long enough for someone to propose legislation as usual on the floor? Or the Senate. Or the other way around. Then both would start talking at once again.
One Of Longest Sessions
This resulted in one of the longest prearranged sessions on record, give or take Rep. Noah M. Mason, an Illinois Republican and non-conformist, ritually adheres to the 1946 Reorganization Act which set the adjournment of Congress for the end of July except when the President declared an emergency.

As he puts it, "I have been automatically adjourning myself for 15 years."
This year, however, even the lone adjourner backslid. He adjourned himself as usual on the first of August but reconvened himself in September and remained in session until the bitter end.
You could tell Mason was bitter because when his name was sounded in a quorum call last Saturday he answered: "Here — under protest."
We journalists customarily refer to closing days of Congress as the "adjournment rush." It would be more accurate, however, to say that this session just sort of trailed off.
Adjournment Betting Pools
A number of the more impatient members departed prematurely, but without the formality of adjourning themselves. They either had dates to go on junkets or else were in a hurry to start explaining things to the folks back home.
Although it may not mean much to people 10 miles away from the District of Columbia, in the capital itself the adjournment of Congress is a big thing. A lot of money rides on it.
Toward the end of summer, betting pools begin springing up all over town. The winners are the ones who come closest to guessing the date and hour of adjournment.

The longevity of this year's session confounded most of the actuaries who participate in these pools. As the end drew near, only the long shots were still in the running.
The trouble was that most of us sought to keep ourselves informed on the prospects for adjournment by heeding the utterances of the congressional leaders. We would have done better to have consulted Las Vegas.

Fielding Bohart Passes Away in Pittsburgh, Pa.

The many friends here of Fielding Bohart were saddened today to learn of his death at his home in Pittsburgh, Pa. With Mrs. Bohart, he had been a winter visitor in Palm Springs for the past 13 years, and the couple planned to make their permanent home here, when death halted their plans.
Bohart was president of the Acheson Manufacturing Co. of Rankin, Pa., and prominent in industrial, church and club circles.
He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Virginia Acheson Bohart; a son, Fielding; a daughter, Barbara; and two brothers, Philip H. of Pittsburgh and A. J. Bohart of New York.
Interment was in Homewood cemetery.

Emergency Kits Now Available

Civil defense first aid emergency kits to provide for four persons or less in the event of an enemy attack are now available in Palm Springs as result of the growing interest in family survival.
Each kit weighs 7 pounds and contains 17 of the 21 first aid items recommended by the official civil defense publications. Space is provided for the remaining recommended articles which can be added from home supplies.
The kits are offered by the Rexall Owl and Drug King stores.

San Luis Plan Approval 'Good'

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — State Director of Water Resources William E. Warne today reviewed congressional approval of $2 million for the San Luis Project and said, "We are off to a good start."
Warne noted that the appropriation, approved Tuesday, was for $500,000 more than the original budget estimate. The original estimate was for preconstruction activities, Warne said.
"This means we have gotten over two hurdles. We have the first federal appropriation, and we have the first money for construction," he said.
The San Luis Project, financed jointly by the state and federal government, is a principal link in the north-south aqueduct to be built as part of California's water development program.
Even in fairly thin atmosphere at 30,000 feet, the surfaces of planes flying at twice the speed of sound will heat at 300 degrees

Weapons Data Information Cut

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Defense Department is taking definite steps to cut down on the dissemination of intelligence information and defense data on new weapons, a government official said today.
Arthur Sylvester, assistant secretary of defense for public affairs, said the department also is trying to close up the sources and methods by which intelligence information is getting out.
He said "we want to make it as hard as possible for people inimical to us" to get information. Some of the intelligence has been "put on a platter" for the enemy, he said.
In a speech before a luncheon meeting of the eighth annual Middle Atlantic Public Relations Conference, Sylvester said his job is to "give the people maximum information consistent with security."
Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara has laid down a policy that officials in the Defense Department should not talk about foreign policy, Sylvester said. He said the policy is not new in government but is being re-emphasized.

Sylvester also praised McNamara as being his own "best publicity man." He said the defense secretary has seen about 90 newsmen for individual interviews.
"The record is clear," Sylvester declared. "Anyone who wants to go after the news (in the Defense Department) can get it."

Find Tree

NEW YORK (UPI) — The giant Christmas Tree that will be displayed at Rockefeller Center here during the holiday season has been found on a Smithtown, Long Island, estate. It is a 75-foot Norway spruce estimated to be 85 years old and to weigh 2 tons. It will be cut after Thanksgiving.

Bar Convention In Full Swing

MONTEREY (UPI) — The state Bar convention held its first full session Wednesday with some 2,000 delegates, judges and guests attending.
On Tuesday, a state Bar committee was ordered to start a study of a proposal to permit the establishment of prepaid group legal services in California.
The plan, suggested by the San Francisco chapter of the National Lawyers Guild, would enable lawyers to offer a program modeled on the group practice programs employed by doctors.
The state Bar's Board of Government tabled a proposal to permit the immediate establishment of such a program and instead appointed a standing committee to further investigate.
California lawyers also recommended a law to give a lawyer a lien on a client's funds received in settlement of a case or satisfaction of a judgment.

GRID HIGHLIGHTS OF THE WEEK

Harmon's 1960 college football champion — the Iowa Hawkeyes — boom onto the gridiron in the third weekend of 1961 football. And the Iowa City powerhouse will boom too — at the expense of the California Bears. California will be a 34-point underdog.
Number Two last year and the Number One team in the Top Twenty this week, Mississippi will hand Kentucky its second straight loss — this one by 17 points. Incidentally, the Top 20 teams include only those teams that have played at least one game this fall.
And this next one should be a real coronary promoter! — the Minnesota Gophers, ranked No. 3 in last year's Harmon ratings, and the Missouri Tigers, 5th last year and rated 3rd this week. "The envelope please . . . the winner is . . ." — Missouri by one point.

In Columbus, last year's 6th-ranked Ohio State Buckeyes meet the Horned Frogs from Texas Christian, rated 13th in this week's Top 20. The Big Ten will draw first blood against the Southwest Conference: the Bucks by five points.
An error in checking forecasting results from two weeks ago resulted in a Harmon record of 71 correct, 17 incorrect, and 2 ties for an .807 average. And because the scores and statistics of no less than 38 of the 130 games forecast last week failed to come over the wire services, it is impossible to determine last week's averages. At last count, however, it appeared that ye olde crystal ball had lost considerable luster.

Two of last year's also-rans — but powers in the past and undoubtedly powers to be in future years — Oklahoma and Notre Dame met head-on in Notre Dame, Indiana. This will be another "squeeze" — the Irish will nip the Sooners by 1 point.
Competition in the Southeast Conference gets rough in a hurry as last year's 14th-ranked Auburn tangles with last year's No. 19 team, Tennessee. And Harmon spotlights Auburn by just two points.

In Lawrence, Kansas, the Skyline Conference will find the Big Eight Conference just a little bit too tough to handle. The Kansas Jayhawks will use a few too many shootin' irons of their own to dust off the rough 'n tough Cowboys from Wyoming by 11 points.
An inter-family tussle in the Southwest Conference should move the Texas Longhorns further up the national ladder. The Longhorns will spank the Red Raiders of Texas Tech by 15 points.
And two last quickies: Rice by 6 over Georgia Tech, and Baylor over Pitt, same margin.

Koufax Sets 'K' Mark

Sandy Fans 269; Breaks Old Record

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Sandy Koufax and the Dodgers were in their usual form Wednesday night against the Phillies—Koufax striking men out and Los Angeles leaving them on base.

And when the whole thing was over, Koufax had a new National League strikeout record for one season and the Dodgers were able to leave nine men on base while losing to the last-place Phillies, 2-1, at Connie Mack Stadium.

Koufax, having his finest season in the majors, struck out seven men and ran his seasonal total to 269, breaking the old mark of 267 set by Christy Mathewson in 1903. The young lefthander allowed only two hits. And the whole performance got him his 13th loss against 18 wins.

The two teams were scheduled to go to it again this evening, rookie Phil Ortega (0-1) pitching for Los Angeles and Chris Short (6-11) for the Phillies.

The Phils got all their runs in the third inning when they combined two hits, an error and a sacrifice bunt for the scores.

Los Angeles got a leadoff double by Willis, a walk to Jim Gilliam and another double by Ron Fairly in the first inning to score its only run of the game—and the only one in the last 25 innings.

The Dodgers collected nine hits and three walks off winning pitcher Jim Owens (5-10), but as they normally do, left most of the runners standing on the bases at the end of each inning.

Los Angeles, which battled all season long to overtake Cincinnati for first place, now is in danger of not even finishing second.

Although it's doubtful, the San Francisco Giants, 3½ back with four games to go, mathematically could overtake the Dodgers.

And from the way Los Angeles is playing it seems to be trying awfully hard to help the Giants make it.

Angels Win Wild Game

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The Los Angeles Angels today held the lead in the expansion series with the Washington Senators, the other new American League club, going into their final meeting tonight for this season.

But it took a wild contest in which Los Angeles used 21 players Wednesday night for the Angels to emerge with an 8-5 victory that snapped their eight-game losing streak. The Angels now stand 8-8 with the Senators for the year.

For tonight's game, Eli Grba (10-13) was given the Angel pitching assignment against Dick Donovan (10-8), who hurled a one-hit victory against Minnesota in his last start.

Dave Sisler, the third of four Washington pitchers, was charged with the loss although he worked only a third of an inning. But he gave up a single and walk with both runners scoring for the Angels' margin of victory.

Rookie catcher Bob Rodgers' pinch single sent home the go-ahead run in the bottom of the eighth after Sisler had allowed the tying run to score on a wild pitch.

The Angels got off to a good start in the first inning when catcher Earl Averill hit a three-run homer. After the Senators got a run in each of the first three innings, Ken Hunt homered in the third to again put Los Angeles ahead.

PIGSKIN PROGNOSTICATOR

Coast Teams Chosen Over Midwest—Except for Cal

By HAL WOOD

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Now that the opening-game jitters are out of the way, something better in the way of the pigskin-picks: (First week, won 6, lost 5):

Iowa over California—The Hawkeyes get a "breather" in their first game of the season as they set their sights on the national championship. Unless Randy Gold returns to the Cal line-up, it will be no contest. By 19.

Southern California over Southern Methodist—A pair of losers in a Friday night encounter. All the Trojans have to do to win this one is to perform the oldest of football chores: Block and tackle. By 4.

Oregon State over Stanford—The Indians have had their day in the sun. They don't have the speed to stop Terry Baker—it says here. By 13.

Washington over Illinois—The odds-makers have installed the Illini as two-point favorites. But the Huskies could have won last week's encounter with Purdue. Both teams manned by youngsters. By 3.

UCLA over Michigan—This is an upset special. Wolverines favored and probably will be leading at the half. If Bruins ever are going to take over as the No. 1 team in the West, this is the time. By 1.

San Jose State over Idaho—The Vandals reportedly have a good first-half team. But the Spartans should be able to go all the way in this one. By six.

Arizona State over Colorado State—The toughies from Tempe roll along to another good season. By 28.

Oregon over Utah—Webfoots didn't get up too much of a sweat last week in downing Idaho. But Utah gave a surprisingly strong fight to Wisconsin. This one could be closer than you think. By 3.

Washington State over Utah State—Cougars find the defense not as tough for quarterback Mel Melin and end Hugh Campbell as that they ran into against Missouri. By 8.

Also: Fresno State over Santa Barbara, University of Pacific over San Diego University, Whittier over Cal Aggies, Redlands over Arizona State of Flagstaff, San Diego State over Cal Poly, Long Beach State over Sacramento State, Cal Western over Occidental and San Francisco State over Cal Poly of Pomona.

Rams Sponsor Football Tests

LOS ANGELES — Final registration date for the National Football League's "Punt, Pass and Kick" competition for boys ages six through 10 is Oct. 12, the L.A. Rams announced.

Conducted in conjunction with President Kennedy's physical fitness program, the nationwide contest offers $1,000,000 in athletic equipment prizes. Five national winners will take their duds to the NFL championship game on Dec. 21. The trip will be climaxed by a visit to the White House.

Finals on Nov. 12. Rams area contestants will compete on Oct. 12th and 14th in cities from San Diego to Bakersfield, with winners advancing to the finals to be staged at halftime of the Rams-Forty-Niners on Nov. 12.

Entrants will compete against boys of their own age group, scoring will be based on distance and accuracy in punting, passing and place-kicking. There is nothing to buy to enter and all equipment is furnished.

City and County Parks and Recreation departments, cooperating with the competition, have designated more than 100 parks and playgrounds on which boys will compete.

Canaries, Daniels Take Bowl Games

The Red Canaries and Jack Daniels "4" took 4-0 games from Road Runners and Peons last night in the California Water and Telephone league at PS Bowl. In the other match, the Longshots edged the Tigers 3-1.

Chuck Martin took game and while Audrey Barret was high game women player with a 185, with Helen Robinson's 513 top series.

Joe Marinko took high single and series honors in the Wednesday night Scratch league with a 236 and 574. Runner-up in both divisions was Bruno Di Grandi with a 215 and 554 total.

All three matches ended up at 2-1 with Turner Shoes over Plaza Motors, Al Lake Air Conditioning over Curtis Kieley and Vic's Refrigeration over Di Grandi's Upholstery.

John Marinko Hits Difficult Split

Bowling's equivalent of, say, the double eagle was brought off when John Marinko knocked off the 4-6-7-10 to pick up a spare. Those are the two pins on each side in the two back lines and most difficult to pick up.

The American Bowling Congress recognizes such a feat with a trophy and patch and the event has been reported to that group. Marinko was bowling for the Paul's Associates, a team fighting for top spot in the league.

It was the first time the trick had been turned in the memory of the bowlers at the alley. Marinko is a co-owner of the bowling alley, is very active in baseball leagues for youngsters and father of Los Angeles Angels' babyboy, Jim Marinko.

Twelve Scorers Needed for Race

SALTON CITY — Mrs. Betty Gallagher of Laguna Beach, house wife and secretary of the United Speedboat Association, has been named chief scorer for the $12,500 Salton City 500 mile National Championship Boat Race Nov. 11 and 12 on the Salton Sea, race officials announced today.

A veteran race scorer for the past 10 years, Mrs. Gallagher is the wife of Harvey Gallagher, fire official at the El Toro Marine Base in Santa Ana, California, and a seasoned "D" Runabout boat racer in coast competition.

Mrs. Gallagher will head up a team of 12 persons who will handle the intricate scoring of the race.

SPORTS in the Sun

Downtown Parade to Kick Off Indian Home Opener

A big day of activity is planned Friday by the Palm Springs High School students to set the stage for the first home football game of the season.

Included in the celebration is a downtown parade, a pep assembly, and a sock-hop.

The entire day has been set aside as "Color Day" at the school. Students show their spirit by wearing the school colors of red and white topped off by a little "spirit cap."

The pep assembly will be held at 2 p.m. in the High School gymnasium. It has been organized by Willis Edwards, pep commissioner at the school.

Sixth Grade Tag Football Program Set

Because of an increasing interest in football, the Palm Springs City Recreation department has announced that it is organizing a tag football league for sixth grade boys.

It is expected that the youngsters will benefit later in football careers if they get this early instruction in fundamentals of the game. All boys will receive coaching and play is supervised at all times.

Parents of the sixth graders received release slips this week which must be signed in order for each boy to participate in the tag football program. Boys interested will report to Nellie Coffman practice field this Saturday at 9 a.m. for first practice session.

The city rec department has also announced that it will furnish insurance on all participants and will co-sponsor the program with the school system.

Also: Fresno State over Santa Barbara, University of Pacific over San Diego University, Whittier over Cal Aggies, Redlands over Arizona State of Flagstaff, San Diego State over Cal Poly, Long Beach State over Sacramento State, Cal Western over Occidental and San Francisco State over Cal Poly of Pomona.

Bruin Tailback Big Five Leader

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Bobby Smith of UCLA leads the Big Five in three departments, according to first week individual statistics released today.

Smith scored three touchdowns against Air Force last week to grab a big lead in the scoring race. He ran for 178 yards and ran up 189 yards total offense.

Willie Brown of USC leads receivers with eight receptions good for 87 yards while teammate Bill Nelsen clicked on 11 of 17 passes for 181 yards to lead that department.

Oddity Bowling--137-137-136 Series

The Desert Business Men's Handicap League turned with good games on opening night with good scores. Bill Paul's 223 games was in vain as Fred Hathaway's crew lead by Ray New's 573 and Louis Folk's 558 was too good at PS Lanes.

A well balanced El Mirador team took 4 from Team 1 and Team 5 in another team effort got 4 from Security Bank as Carl Fisher missed a bowling oddity by one pin on games of 137 - 137 - 136.

Earl Sutton's 491 series paced Western Auto's 3-1 win over Bob Broes' Certified Electric Team, in a close match.

Industrial Electric dropped the first game but stormed right back to grab the last pair and total pinfall from Les Shaw's Desert Air Conditioning five as Chuck Butler's 534 and Les Shaw's 523 lead the match scoring.

Women's League Scores

The Cactus Blossom's were paced again by the "600" Coiffeurs. They took a 3-1 win from Dream Homes as Phyllis Sticks 433-161 helped the losers with Jo Weaver's 425 leading the hair stylists.

Land O Lamps dropped a 4-0 decision to the Indian Birds despite Helen Spechts high scoring 180 game 459 series. King Construction Co. fought back to take the 1st game after dropping the first two. Marcy Esbitt 169 - 411 led the loser's Blanche Pederson and Lillian Jackson scored well for Babin Realty.

MR. AND MRS. BOWLER is the title these couples were vying for at Palm Springs Lanes as 15 husband-wife teams sought the winning points. Champions are Mr. and Mrs. George McCrystal who won in the final match over Mr. and Mrs. Les Shaw. Shown from left are Fred Scarms, who presented the trophy, Les Shaw, Harriet McCrystal, Audrey Shaw and George McCrystal. The Shaws and McCrystals had deadlocked in regular play at 1638 pins each for the King and Queen title, with the McCrystals winning the rolloff by 30 pins.

Indian JV's Open in Perris

Squad Hopes to Continue Mark Of '60 Winners

Coach Calvin Farley and his rugged Indian Junior Varsity are in Perris this afternoon seeking a continuation of the mastery they held over the Panthers last year.

Although the coach is without the services of two promising players, end Dave Kennedy (with a badly sprained ankle), and halfback Joey Lasagno (with a broken bone in his shoulder), he hopes he may have a pretty strong team.

"It's hard to judge this early in the season with JV teams," Coach Farley said. "You never know what an opponent will come up with." Last year, the strong Indian JV team beat Perris in the opener by a 26-0 score.

Undefeated Record

Most of the players on that team are gone, however. Seven freshmen last year are now up with the varsity. The 1960 squad ended the season with a perfect

8-0 record and out-scored their opponents by a 248 to 31 count. Farley said the offensive team would probably line up in the opener as follows:

- LE—John Booty
- LT—Tim Rellafor
- C—Joe Bush
- LG—Jerry Trussell
- RG—Bobby Williams
- RT—Bob Hecht
- RE—Wayne Pellum
- QB—Paul Summers
- LH—Cliff Rougley
- RH—Grady Morgan
- FB—Jerry Olivera

The JV team has the same offensive system as the varsity, using an unbalanced line in front of a split-T. Coach Farley feels he may be hurting most at quarterback where inexperience may catch up with him. He lost two fine quarters to the varsity this year in Tom Bradley and Mickey Morrison.

While last year's undefeated squad proved exceptionally talented at passing with the likes of Bradley and Morrison, Coach Farley reports he may switch to a running game this year.

This first game today should tell a lot.

Statutory Rape Change Sought By Lawyers

MONTEREY (UPI) — Sixteen and 17-year-old girls are often the real seducers in statutory rape cases, according to a committee of Southern California lawyers.

The committee told the opening session of the 34th annual conference of the state Bar Monday that state laws should be changed to protect unwary males.

Under existing laws, a girl 18 or over can legally consent to an act of sexual intercourse, but if she is under 18 such an act is a felony for the man or boy involved. The girl's consent to the act is not a factor.

The recommended change would give girls 16 and over the right to consent.

The legal minimum age of consent was 10 in 1872, according to the committee. Later it was increased to 14, to 16 and to 18.

But the committee told of "a progressive increase in the number of cases where the female is actually the aggressor and where, in the defendant, himself frequently a minor, becomes involved under circumstances that raise a serious doubt as to whether the ends of justice require that he be prosecuted as a felon . . ."

In other action, delegates rebuffed an American Legion-backed resolution to make membership in the Communist Party grounds for disbarment.

The vote was 337-45 and came after a spokesman for the Bar Board of Governors explained that the board feels the present state law is adequate.

The law states that anyone who believes in the "violent overthrow of the government" may not practice law. He said a measure expressly forbidding Communists would be ineffective.

A committee trying to decide whether the office of county coroner should be abolished split, 3-3. Delegates voted for a continued study by a new committee.

Some 800 lawyers representing about 90 local associations and groups are here to make such recommendations before the general convention begins Wednesday.

More than 2,000 attorneys from throughout the state were expected to attend the general sessions, which will take up these subjects and others such as recommendations on divorce laws, punishment for murderers and kidnappers, and disbarment of communists.

LAW SUITS FLYING

'Cleopatra' Encounters Trouble Within 24 Hours

ROME (UPI)—Actress Elizabeth Taylor and the film "Cleopatra" appeared to be in trouble Wednesday only 48 hours after the much-delayed epic went before the cameras.

Law suits were flying around. Even the Italian Communist party was trying to get into the act charging segregation between Negro and white extras on the set which, they said, had been turned into "an Italian Little Rock."

These were developments on the film, originally scheduled to start a year ago, and which finally got under way Monday.

filed an $1,800 suit against Miss Taylor claiming she did not pay them the commission on the $3,000 a month villa she rented here.

—The Italiana Galatea Film Productions filed suit against 20th Century-Fox, which is making "Cleopatra," claiming "notable damages" for not using its services on the film as allegedly contracted for in 1959.

—The Communist organ Unita splashed a front page story with pictures under the headline "American racism for 'Cleopatra.'"

The story claimed that Negro and white dancers working for the film were segregated in separate buses for their drive out to Cinecittà (Film City) every day and that they were forbidden to mix on the set.

Cleopatra officials denied the segregation charges and they were supported by American and Italian newsmen who have seen no signs of segregation on the "Cleopatra" set.

Springs Gets Tax Returns

SACRAMENTO — Palm Springs has received $112,587 for its quarterly return of sales and use taxes administered under contract by the state, Richard Nevins, fourth district member of the State Board of Equalization reported.

Nevins, who will be the keynote speaker at the Wednesday Oct. 4 desert area Democratic meeting in Palm Springs, is expected to review tax growth and administration with Democratic representatives from the entire desert area, as well as speak on party organizational matters.

Total Riverside county quarterly distribution was $948,231, Nevins said. Top collections went to the city of Riverside, with $319,829 returned. Riverside county returns were $272,535. Total distribution to 57 counties and 361 cities which contracted the state service was $58,199,887, Nevins said.

Radioactive Fallout in Northwest China Heavy

TAIPEI, Formosa (UPI)—Radio Peiping has warned that the population of northwest China is threatened by "dense and poisonous radioactive fallout" coming from the Soviet Union, National Chinese intelligence sources reported.

The radio was quoted as saying that the situation in Sinkiang Province bordering on Russia is so serious that the Communist People's Provincial Government urged inhabitants to leave the region.

Nationalist sources said the Communist radio broadcast also said the Peiping regime ordered Red troops in Sinkiang to help people leave by providing them with vehicles and boats.

The official Chinese radio station issued the warnings twice on Tuesday night, the Nationalist sources said.

Peiping Radio, they said, quoted reports from the weather station in Sinkiang as saying that the "dense" fallout had resulted from Soviet nuclear tests in central Asia.

Nationalist intelligence sources said it was the first time that Peiping admitted that there was harmful fallout in Communist China.

Radio Peiping was quoted as asking people in Sinkiang province to report immediately to local authorities if they have skin burns, severe headaches, or feel unusually tired.

In Tokyo today, Japanese newspapers also said there had been "sudden, alarming jumps in aerial dust and a rain radioactivity" in central, northern and northeastern Japan.

The reports said the highest radioactivity count since 1954 was recorded by scientists near the northern tip of Honshu, Japan's main island.

Prima, Smith Break-Up Seen

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Nightclub team Louis Prima and Keely Smith will break up professionally and personally, friends of the performers said today.

The man and wife singing-comedy act is scheduled to make its final appearance beginning Oct. 2 at a Las Vegas hotel.

Thereafter, according to sources close to the Primas, Miss Smith will seek a divorce.

The couple was married in 1953 and have two daughters.

Upswing Seen In Winter Flu

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—The state Department of Public Health Wednesday predicted an "upswing" in flu this winter.

The department said Asian flu outbreaks occur in two-to-three-year cycles. The last occurred during the first three months of 1960 and caused 3,500 "excess deaths" of which 1,000 were directly attributable to influenza and pneumonia.

The department said California was "overdue" for type B influenza outbreaks, which occur in four-to-six-year cycles. "It has been more than six years since there has been much type B in California," the department said.

The department recommended flu vaccinations for all persons with heart or lung conditions, for older persons with any chronic illness, all persons over 65 and pregnant women.

SENATOR'S JUMPY ABOUT TV BROADCASTING TO COW BARN

By JOSEPH D. HUTNYAN

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. J. Glenn Beall, R-Md., has suggested that the cow make the next big impact on television programming. He's a bit jumpy about it.

His apprehension, according to his weekly newsletter, results from a news story from England reporting a farmer found that his herd produced more milk after he installed television sets in the barn.

Under the heading, "Television Fit for a Cow," Beall discussed some of the ominous implications of this experiment.

TV-Standard Equipment
"Television may become standard dairy equipment," he wrote. "Eventually, we may be confronted with the rather bewildering possibility of a TV audience 60 per cent cow and only 40 per cent people."

And, Beall said, this may only be the beginning.

What happens when the pollsters and the other program technicians form up ranks, sharpen their pencils and research?

"Upon further research it may be established that cows give more milk while watching. 'The Price is Right,' for instance, than they do watching. 'What's My Line?'"

Prospects Frightening
The senator said it was frightening to reflect on what influence this could have on ratings and sponsorship.

He said it could even reach the point where the Federal Communications Commission might have to divide up its TV regulatory responsibilities with the Agriculture Department.

"If TV should become a factor in serious overproduction of milk, the secretary of agriculture may have to step in," Beall wrote.

"The way things have been going, it is conceivable that sometime in the future, we may be paying extra subsidies to those farmers who would agree to cut down on their cows' viewing time."

Use of Water May Triple

SAN DIEGO (UPI)—William E. Warner, director of the state Department of Water Resources, predicted Tuesday that this county's population will double and water usage will triple within the next 10 years.

But he expressed the belief that the California water plan would solve the water problem.

Warner told a Kiwanis luncheon that water costs would not rise much with installation of facilities to bring water from the Feather River and other northern sources. He said about 70 to 90 per cent of the needed facilities already are installed.

Let's Get Going on 111

One of the vital needs of the desert area is still in the negotiations stage — where it has been for almost two decades. Indications are that no early action is scheduled for the improvement of Highway 111, linking Palm Springs and the swiftly growing communities to the southeast.

Riverside County officials and state highway engineers are discussing the project, Gordon H. Cologne, state assemblyman, told the Coachella Valley Advisory Planning Committee this week and then applied the crusher: no early solution is in sight.

Differences of opinion in the various communities along the route were cited as a factor in the delay, so although many hearings have already been held, more are scheduled to straighten out the problem.

Highway 111 is probably the most important thoroughfare in the Desert Empire. There is a freeway skirting the northern end of the valley which takes care of the through traffic. Highway 111 is more important as it provides for the residents of the burgeoning desert area.

Beyond a few sections where it has been widened and straightened, it is the same highway it has been for almost two decades. During that time the volume of traffic it carries has increased one hundred-fold, and continues to increase as the desert continues to grow at an accelerated pace.

State interest in Highway 111 has been diverted by proposals for a freeway or limited access expressway cutting across the built-up desert. The routing for such a highway is also a subject of controversy. But why it should delay action on improvement of the existing Highway 111 is a puzzle. We already have a wide freeway-type of throughfare in U.S. 60-70-99 to the north and east. It handles through traffic and is easily accessible to all desert communities by connecting roads.

The most important improvement is not another freeway or expressway. The one we have answers the purpose. What we need is the improvement of Highway 111, linking the desert communities, into a wide, safe highway accommodating both the drivers who have business in the desert communities and our guests who wish to enjoy the scenery and attractions of the desert.

Why duplicate something we already have to the detriment of something we need?

'Turn Backward, Oh Time'

Styles go in cycles. For the men, vests and double-breasted suits are essaying a come-back. And we read that women are again going to show the knees. Could be that even derbies may again be dirigueur.

Styles are swinging back in automobile design, too. Two-tone jobs are disappearing and fins seem on the way out. Rumble seats may come back.

Who knows but that soon motorcycle officers will again have a running board on which to rest a foot as they use their knee for a desk to scribble out a ticket?

On September 17, 1787, the Constitutional Convention in Philadelphia adopted what a year later was to become formally the basic law of the new United States of America. That notable event is memorialized by Constitution Week, September 17 to 23.

Through the years the people have added and subtracted to the Constitution's provisions, but to a very large extent it has resisted the attempts of those who would alter its basic concept of government. Today it still stands as the world's noblest embodiment of man's eternal struggle to establish justice, insure domestic tranquility, provide for the common defense, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to himself and his posterity.

The Constitution may have been the product of a small agrarian community, as one critic recently sneered; but it was a community that harbored the wisdom of the ages and the God-given aspirations that will inspire men of good will for all time to come. The world will bless us if we can preserve its guarantees and its guides until the day comes that all men may enjoy the liberties and blessed responsibilities it seeks to establish.

Dear Abby . . .

... by Abigail VanBuren

DEAR ABBY: I am 14 and have a problem. My mother and I disagree about correcting people when they make a mistake in pronouncing words, or use them in the wrong place. My mother says it is wrong to correct your mother or father or any elderly person in private or in front of others.

I said I didn't think there was anything wrong with correcting people in a polite way in private or in front of people. I don't think anybody is ever too old to learn. Who is right?

"PERFECTIONIST"
DEAR PERFECTIONIST: Your mother is wrong. Honey, but she is still your mother. The pride of older people suffers when they are corrected by children, even if the correction is offered politely and in private (as it should be). So drop the practice and remember — you may have a "perfectionist" of your own some day.

DEAR ABBY: Recently my brother passed away. He left a wife and two step-children (when he married this woman she was a widow with two children). She had been married to my brother less than two years, but this is what she did. She had him buried in a plot next to her first husband! When my parents found out where he was being buried they almost went into shock. As though this wasn't bad enough, this plot is a family plot for HER family. We wanted our brother buried with HIS family. Did she have a right to do this? Can we take legal action against her?

UP IN ARMS
DEAR UP: Calm down. There is nothing you can do.

DEAR ABBY: I sometimes wonder if my husband is all there. We have been married for eight years, and are both in our late twenties. He is a good husband and father, and has never given me any reason to distrust him, but he reacts peculiarly to certain situations.

For example, when I am pregnant, he is the one who wakes up sick in the morning. If one of the children gets hurt, I tend to the injury and he cries right along with the child. When our oldest boy had his tonsils removed, my husband had the sore throat. Is this sort of thing normal, or do you think I ought to send him to a psychiatrist?

WORRIED
DEAR WORRIED: You are married to a sensitive, sympathetic, and perhaps frustrated actor. Cherish him.

CONFIDENTIAL TO E. F.: Gentlemen traditionally prefer blondes—but marry brunettes.

This Side of The Sun

By R. F. 'Phat' Graettinger

Let's hope that when they finish paving, Things forgotten won't have us raving.

Normal procedure, it seems, calls for sudden, immediate, urgent utility repair or installation within ten days after a new pavement has been laid. So the hope is that things won't be normal on North Palm Canyon Drive.

THAT PROJECT at the north entrance to town promises to be a major improvement, a wide street, calm trees, lights, a most pleasant appearing sight for people coming from the coastal areas.

As I understand it, plans to smooth out the flow of traffic through town on the Drive won't stop at this end of the new paving project.

PALM CANYON DRIVE will be striped for four lanes all the way, linking the new north-end project with the widened thoroughfare south of Tahquitz bridge. With left turn lanes to keep the main traffic flow moving.

When this is done, there'll have to be a campaign of education to acquaint motorists with the danger of getting out of their cars on the drivers', or left, side. So they won't step into the traffic flow or span half of a lane with their open door.

BACK ALMOST a half century, the late Nellie Coffman of Desert Inn fame, fought valiantly to have Palm Canyon Drive made into a 100-foot wide street while there was still time. It would have been great had she succeeded.

But, some of the others here then didn't have her vision of the future growth of Palm Springs. They thought 64 feet was wide enough to handle any traffic we'd ever have.

THERE'S A PROBLEM about street improvement jobs, a contractor told me, that results in unjust criticism too often.

He said people often wonder why, in a winter resort, the jobs are held up until fall and in a summer resort, await the start of the busy season.

He said that's because, in a winter resort, it's too hot to do the work in summer and in a summer resort, too cold to do it in winter. So they have to try to squeeze it in between the end of the off season and start of the busy season, in either case.

WHAT'S BECOME of that plan by Elizabeth Rudell Smith, U.S. treasurer, to put out colored currency. Each denomination would be of a different hue. Make it easier for counting after you memorized the colors and that old phrase "let's see the color of your money," would really have a meaning.

Broached the subject to the morose guy next to me and he said: "To heck with coloring it," he said. "Why don't they just San-

Churchill College Joins Business, Academics

By HOLMES ALEXANDER

CAMBRIDGE, ENGLAND — Churchill College, the first new men's college to be established in this ancient university during the 20th century, opens its arms this October to the first 76 undergraduates.

These new students join 25 post-graduates, beginning last year, on a barely-begun campus. The site today comprises a few "flats" for married dons, several temporary rooms for dining and teaching, some impressive landscape gardening, a huge excavation and two trees — an oak and a mulberry — planted two autumns ago by Sir Winston Churchill, the father and namesake.

"We hope to become the bridge," I was told by John Sinclair Morrison, Senior Tutor and Vice Master of the College, "between the world of business and the world of academics."

The genesis of the idea sprang from the rich brain of Mr. Churchill shortly after he was unseated as Prime Minister by the Socialist sweep in 1945. Alarmed by the victory of anti-capitalists at home and by what he knew of Communist intentions and capabilities in Russia, Mr. Churchill felt a deep anxiety for the country he had saved in war and which had rejected him with peace in sight.

Looks to Big Business
He knew that in the new jet-and-atomic age, England and the West would need more and better scientists and engineers. For long periods of non-productive study and for expensive experiments and fabrication, Mr. Churchill felt that he must look to Big Business as the benefactor which, in the long term, could hope to be repaid in profits as well as patriotic satisfactions. From first to last, Mr. Churchill had the help of Carl Joyce Gilbert, now Chairman of the Gillette Company and President of the U. S. Churchill Foundation in Boston. Many of Britain's biggest industrial corporations, aided by the Ford and Rockefeller Foundations, built the financial structure for the establishment and endowment of Churchill College.

There are dangers to scholarship when it accepts the bounty of a wealthy patron. These dangers are well-known and long confronted in British circles of higher education. All the 20-odd older colleges of Cambridge University were established by the royal or noble families. But the tradition is that once established, a college becomes a self-sufficient corporation and minds its own house. Churchill College has now received from donors about three and a half million pounds, including twenty-five thousand pounds from Sir Winston's 80th birthday fund. More than half of this total is going for construction. The rest, and future donations, will be invested.

The greatest special peril to an academic institution in having Big Business for a patron is that science and technology may be over-emphasized to the detriment and eventual exclusion of the humanities. Churchill College saw this one coming far down the road and is already prepared to meet it. There is no objection to weighting the staff, the students and the curriculum in favor of the natural sciences, for that is the main purpose of the new college. But to provide checks and balances, and to protect the minorities against extinction — that is the necessary feat in academics as well as in government.

The Churchill College system is knowingly put together. The College Master is Sir John Cockcroft, one of Britain's greatest figures in academic science and atomic energy, a Nobel Prize winner of 1951 in physics, and a world-known personality at scientific conferences. In counterbalance, Sir John's second-in-command, Mr. Morrison, is a classics scholar of comparable stature, and was Senior Tutor at Trinity College before being recruited for Churchill. Students and subject matter at Churchill are divided 70 per cent for the sciences and 30 per cent for the arts. The three scholarships now available at Churchill also are divided in counterbalance—one for the classics, one for history and one for the natural sciences.

Another special threat to academic freedom from a Big Business sponsor has developed, and been met, at Churchill. Every college at Cambridge has its chapel as a matter of course. But the big operator of British industry balked when it came to building a Churchill chapel. What sort of profits would religion yield? Why should practical men put their hands in their pockets for that? After all, the Church of England is tax supported. Let the well-fed Bishops cough up.

At last, as a concession, the donors agreed to set aside a small bit of ground just in case somebody else would build a chapel. It was also agreed that a chaplain, useful for marrying, burying, christening and dedication ceremonies would be appointed. A chaplain without a chapel? For awhile that appeared to be the fix at Churchill College, whose plain, functional architecture in a community of Tudor and Gothic splendor had a strange, secular look anyhow.

But a rescuer here in sight. The Rev. T. W. Beaumont, publisher of "Time & Tide" and other British periodicals, stepped in and donated a chapel.

Rising above its difficulties, the college is proving to be Churchillian by nature as well as by name.

Khrushchev Will Back Down Says Considine

By BOB CONSIDINE

NEW YORK — A nfan's a fool to guess about the future in these times, just as it would be folly if this nation failed to keep its uranium dry. But here goes:

—We'll write off German unification, but make access to West Berlin such an issue that neither the Russians nor East Germany will frontally challenge it.

—Khrushchev will say, in time, that he never had any intention of setting a specific time limit on the signing of a separate peace treaty with the East German Communist government.

—To shroud his climb off his limb in Berlin, Khrushchev will propose to Castro that the Russians construct an IRRM or SAC-type base in Cuba, to be controlled by Soviet forces.

—There will be a Kennedy-Khrushchev Summit Meeting, which will miff Macmillan, De Gaulle and Mao Tse-Tung.

—UN will vote to debate Red China's membership in UN, even though Red China has not applied. In the showdown, enough nations will vote to debate the issue.

It is some kind of commentary on American society that on Tuesday the largest concern displayed in the press over Hurricane Esther centered on a baseball game in Baltimore. One might have gathered that the greatest possible damage would be for the storm to "wash-out" Roger Maris' last slim hope of beating Babe Ruth's home run record.

Millions of people who wouldn't know a Texas league from a Little League and would look for a Baltimore chop at a meat counter have become aware of Mr. Maris and his battle with the record book. Without meaning to pun they can call it a Homer's struggle. For many the magic number of 60 has loomed larger than the pennant.

Why all this to-do? No such excitement hovered over the "Bambino" when he set the mark in 1927. He did not even win the most valuable player award that year. We surmise that the secret ingredient here will be found not in the charm of Mr. Maris nor in the precision instrument he wields, but in that old shaper and mover—printer's ink. With an able assist from radio, the press has built up a suspense situation equal to a detective mystery. It has fashioned a canedoit to match any whodunit.

We note two responses to this phenomenon. One is grief that the public should be so frivolous; the other is relief that the people find such an innocent safety valve for emotion in days when anger could add to the dangers of war. Actually a lot of folk who know the Maris score also know the Soviet test score—thanks to printer's ink.

From the Bible

Is it not written, "My house shall be called a house of prayer for all the nations?"

(Mark 11:17)

"To love his neighbor as himself is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices."

—Mark 12:33

"... he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord."

—I Corinthians 1:31

"... we will walk in the name of the Lord our God for ever and ever."

—Micah 4:5

Chopping Dad's Whiskers Involves Big Competition

By JESSE BOGUE
UPI Financial Editor

NEW YORK (UPI)—That old and automatic question asked by a barber after a haircut — "wet or dry?" — has turned into a fighting matter when it involves a shave and the ordinary male citizen asks it of himself.

There's a bitter competition for the business of getting billions of whiskers off the faces of millions of American men each morning. Statistics, claims, advertising in all fields are marshalled and maneuvered in the struggle for the consumer dollar and the investors' funds between the makers of electric shavers and the makers of the safety razor and blades.

Two of the leaders in the field are the Remington Rand Electric shaver division of Sperry Rand Corp. (for the drys) and Gillette Safety Razor Co., Boston, for the wets.

A spokesman for the electric shavers, Robert D. Short, national sales manager of the Remington Rand shaver division, has taken sharp issue with recent published assertions that the electric shaver business was slipping.

He said the industry is right now in the midst of what could easily be its greatest growth period, enjoying its largest sales year in history and that his company and its competitors, which would include Shick, Inc., Sunbeam Corp., and North American Phillips Co., are investing $17 million in advertising to get Americans to go to electric shavers and stay there.

On the other hand, Gillette last weekend declared an extra dividend of 80 cents a share in addition to the regular 62.5 cents and voted to recommend a three-to-one common stock split to stockholders.

Berliners Are Ready For Russ

BERLIN (UPI)—West Berliners have regained their old fervor and are ready for the Russians' next move.

Morale, shaken by the Communist closing of the East-West Berlin border on Aug. 13, is high again.

The biggest boost came with the arrival of Gen. Lucius B. Clay, hero of the 1948-1949 blockade, as President Kennedy's personal representative.

Clay won the respect and affection of Berliners as no other American has when he was American military governor from 1945 to 1949. When he left Berlin, grateful Berliners named a street for him. It is Clay Allee leading into the American sector in an area of parks, boulevards and stately homes. The American consulate is on Clay Allee.

One unfortunate event marked Clay's return.

Some news reports quoted him as saying at a press reception that East Germany would have a part in control of West Berlin's air corridors to the West and that the two German governments should conduct their own negotiations.

Clay said neither. This correspondent stood at his elbow through the entire conversation and heard him say flatly that the East Germans would "absolutely not" have a hand in the airways and at no time did he suggest the two governments should negotiate.

The reports shocked Clay. He came to Berlin as a symbol of U. S. determination.

He remarked he did not come to sell it out.

When West Berliners awakened on Sunday Aug. 13 to find the city border closed they almost panicked. The very basis of the city's existence seemed threatened. Hopes for the future appeared to vanish.

West Berlin had taken pride in the fact that it was the West's "show-window" deep in Communist territory, a haven for East German refugees, a last meeting place for Germans from both sides of the split nation.

The wall the Communists erected impressed anew on every Berliner the fact that his city and country were split and might never be reunified in his lifetime.

It emphasized the Russians' determination to isolate West Berlin and make it a so-called free, demilitarized city.

The unpleasant facts still must be faced. But they are being faced without panic and without despair. There is sadness but no gloom.

A few days ago, West Berlin opened a new opera house. The West German federal Government has granted the city an additional $27.5 million to meet special economic needs arising out of the present crisis and to assist in an expanded cultural and economic program.

Mayor Willy Brandt has announced that $27.5 million will be spent on construction of 4,000 new apartments for workers coming in from West Germany. Work on the first 1,000 will start in the next few weeks.

CATHEDRAL CITY

Missouri Visitors Are Family Reunion Highlight

A family reunion highlighted the weekend for Ray Howell, who makes his home with his son and family, the Arnold Bernards of Arden Drive.

Here for the happy occasion were his daughters (who married brothers) and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Johnson and children Richard, Beverley and Jeanette from Independence, Mo., and Mr. and Mrs. John B. Johnson and daughters Sharon and Donna, who make their home in Compton. The Oliver Johnsons left with the John Johnsons for their home in Compton Sunday afternoon and a visit there before returning east.

Illness has delayed the return to Cathedral City of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Ritter, who spend the winters at Sky Ridge. Mrs. Ritter is recuperating satisfactorily in Tacoma General Hospital from a stroke suffered five weeks ago. When she is permitted to travel they plan on leaving Washington for the desert.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Batte of Los Angeles were weekend houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Don Frank. Sunday a dinner at the Riviera celebrated the 27th wedding anniversary for Mr. and Mrs. Batte and the 25th for Mr. and Mrs. Frank. The visitors, who are on vacation, left Monday for Las Vegas. Mrs. Frank and Mrs. Batte have been friends since attending school in Los Angeles.

Following the summer spent in Banning and Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. George H. Miller and her father, Ernest Elsner, returned last week to their home on Iroquois.

A relaxing vacation was enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Leo (Angie) Shurley, who returned by plane after a month in Mexico. They spent a week in Mexico City from where they took side trips to many of the picturesque villages nearby. Leo is back at the Palm Desert Post Office and Angie will return to her duties at the Cathedral City Post Office on Monday. During the summer their daughter Carol spent six weeks in New York City taking in all the interesting shows.

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin T. LaSalle are back after spending two months near Boise, Ida., and two months in Lincoln, Calif.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith celebrated their 42nd wedding anniversary with a quiet dinner at the Red Lantern in Beaumont.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Evers returned by air Tuesday night from a two-week visit with her mother, Mrs. Otto Besch, at the Lake front family home in Pewaukee, Wisc.

During the summer Mrs. Olive Nickerson, now back home, traveled throughout California and Arizona visiting with friends and relatives.

Christine Lillian, who spent the summer in Idyllwild, has returned to her Sven-Ska Bungalows which she plans to reopen the first of November.

Wednesday morning Mr. and Mrs. Al Lake and Mr. and Mrs. Berton Lamb returned from a plane trip to the Virgin Islands. They were among the California group of air conditioning dealers who were entertained by their company for a week on the tropical island of St. Croix. Stopping at Hotel St. Croix By The Sea, they rented a jeep and toured the island and one of the highlights of the week was a day aboard a sailboat and a new experience, "snorkeling," that afforded them an interesting view of the coral and other sea formations in the crystal clear waters. The Lams were guests of the Lakes.

Mrs. Lillian Kane, who enjoyed the summer at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Segal, and her grandchildren Ed and Janet, has returned to Cathedral City to reopen her Westview Apartments for another season.

FALLOUT SHELTER suits will be unveiled at the Men's and Boys' Apparel Guilds in California fashion show at the Market Week in Palm Springs Oct. 7-11. They are modeled by TV and film stars Barbara Hale and Bill Williams. Emphasis in the suits is placed on comfort, utility, warmth, waterproofing and practicality and are designed for both daytime and sleep wear. According to civilian defense authorities, confinement in a fallout shelter may range from two to four weeks. Special material is used in the suits, from which stains can be wiped, since laundering facilities are not available. Barbara costars on the "Perry Mason" series and Bill headlines "Assignment Underwater."

Red Cross Director Tells Of Hurricane Destruction

"Destruction such as this, involving some 43,000 homes cannot be imagined. It must be seen to be believed," writes John Kraft, Riverside County Red Cross safety service director, from a devastated area near Beaumont, Texas. Kraft is serving as housing inspector for victims of Hurricane Carla.

"In many instances," he writes, "only the bare foundations show that homes and families were here only a short time ago." He tells of one man who took his family to a Red Cross shelter only five blocks away. He returned to his home for clothing and within the fifteen minute period the house was in three-foot deep water. A few days later it had been swept from its foundation.

From storm-wrecked Hitchcock, a little way up Highway 6 from Galveston, Tex., Red Cross workers report families reply to the question, "where are you staying now?" with "no mas amigos." "No more than friends" has become a key phrase of victims there.

Palmer Simpson, Director of Red Cross relief operations for the Texas - Louisiana hurricane area said that incomplete surveys covering 25 Texas counties and 3 Louisiana parishes indicate over 50,000 families affected. He estimated 10,000 of these families will apply for assistance with Red Cross.

By mid-afternoon Monday applications for aid had been received from more than 6,000 families at 19 registration centers. Meanwhile on Tuesday, hundreds of Red Cross volunteers from northern Georgia to New Jersey readied shelters to feed people fleeing from areas threatened by Hurricane Esther. More than 40 experienced disaster workers have been assigned by eastern and southeastern areas to help volunteers house and feed evacuees.

1962 MERCURYS

best-looking buys...now in each size

FIRST SHOWING! THE NEW 1962 MERCURYS (COMPACT AND BIG)

COMET

smartly ahead of the compact crowd

MERCURY
MONTEREY

the best-looking buy for the big-car man

HIGHLIGHTS: COMPACT MERCURY COMET. Talk value and you're talking Mercury COMET. It's the compact with the extras that make the difference. Take beauty. This is the only compact with fine-car styling. You get extra room plus a smoother ride (up to 7.5-inch longer wheelbase than other compacts). Extra trunk space for as many as six extra suitcases. Extra savings on oil and upkeep. This year you can drive 6,000 miles between oil changes. A new type anti-freeze, anti-rust coolant lasts two years or 30,000 miles. Extra resale value, too (best record of any compact). The price? With or below most compacts.

MERCURY COMET

HIGHLIGHTS: BIG, LUXURIOUS MERCURY MONTEREY. This is Mercury's finest car. The very top of the line. It is specially built for the big-car man—with those big extra values a man likes. More room than other cars near its price—for long legs and big families. An extra-long wheelbase (120") for that solid, luxury-car "feel." A smoother, quieter ride—the result of exclusive Cushion-Link Suspension. A wide engine choice—"6" or three V-8's. Plus the kind of savings that really cut upkeep. Routine service is needed only twice a year (at 6,000- to 30,000-mile intervals)! The price? Well within the popular-price range.

MERCURY MONTEREY

WIN A 1962 MERCURY AT OUR ANNOUNCEMENT SHOWING. 18 CARS GIVEN AWAY. 12,680 PRIZES IN ALL!
